4.6 DETERMINING WHETHER A TRANSACTION IS IN THE ORDINARY COURSE OF BUSINESS OPERATIONS

Related Party Transactions that are part of regular operative activities, and connected financial activities, shall be considered to be in the ordinary course of business operations. Following are some of the broad criteria that may be considered for determining whether the transaction is in the ordinary course of business:

- (i) Whether the scope of the transaction is generally consistent with the Company's business activities and whether the Company enters into, or can enter into, similar transactions with a third party.
- (ii) Whether the transaction is of a nature regularly carried out by the Company, is an important indication that classifies the transaction to be within the Company's ordinary course of business operations.
- (iii) Whether the transaction value is within the reasonable range for similar types of other transactions.

4.7 DETERMINING WHETHER A TRANSACTION IS AT ARM'S LENGTH

The expression "arm's length transaction" means a transaction between two related parties that is conducted as if they were unrelated, so that there is no conflict of interest. In addition to evaluating whether the transaction results in a conflict of interest on the basis of the transfer pricing report, the Company should also consider the additional tests such as those listed below:

- (i) whether the transaction is commercially negotiated;
- (ii) whether the transaction is necessary for business opportunities for growing new or existing markets; and
- (iii) any other matters the Company considers relevant.

For on-going transactions, the last available transfer pricing report shall be the basis of the assessment. For a new transaction, a review and approval by Company's internal transfer pricing tax team would be the basis.

4.8 REVIEW AND APPROVAL OF RELATED PARTY TRANSACTIONS

4.8.1 The Audit Committee of the Board shall review, approve and, if necessary, recommend to the Board for its approval all Related Party Transactions and any material amendments to such Related Party Transactions. The Audit Committee is authorized to grant omnibus approval for Related Party Transactions proposed to be entered into by the Company during a financial year, which are repetitive in nature. Accordingly, at first meeting of the Audit Committee in every financial year, management shall present to the Committee the following information with respect to all Related Party Transactions expected to be entered into during that financial year:

- a) the name of the related party and nature of relationship;
- b) the nature, duration of the contract and particulars of the contract or arrangement;
- c) the material terms of the contract or arrangement including the value, if any;
- d) any advance paid or received for the contract or arrangement, if any;
- e) the manner of determining the pricing and other commercial terms;
- f) a general description of the transactions; and
- g) any other material information regarding the transaction(s) or the Related Party's interest in the transaction(s).

4.8.2 The Audit Committee may also grant omnibus approval for any new transaction upto a limit not exceeding Rs. 1 crore per transaction where the need for Related Party Transaction cannot be foreseen and aforesaid details are not available.

- 4.8.3 The Audit Committee shall review, atleast on quarterly basis, the details of Related party Transactions entered into by the Company pursuant to each of the omnibus approval given.
- 4.8.4 No director shall participate in any approval of a Related Party Transaction for which he or she is a Related Party, except that the director shall provide all material information concerning the Related Party Transaction to the Committee.
- 4.8.5 In determining whether to approve a Related Party Transaction, the Committee may take into account the following factors, among others, which it deems appropriate :
- (i) whether the transaction is fair to the Company;
  - (ii) whether the Committee has all of the material facts regarding the transaction or parties involved;
  - (iii) whether the transaction is generally available to an unaffiliated third-party under the same or similar circumstances and cost; and
  - (iv) the extent of the Related Person's interest in the transaction.

The Committee may approve a Related Party Transaction presented to it only if it determines that, based on all of the information presented, the transaction is not inconsistent with the best interests of the Company as a whole. The Committee may, in its sole discretion, impose such terms and conditions as it deems appropriate on the Company or the Related Party in connection with its approval of a Related Party Transaction.

- 4.8.6 The Audit Committee shall report all Material related party transactions to the Board of Directors. The Company will also seek shareholders' approval for such transaction through special resolution and all entities falling under the definition of related parties shall abstain from voting on such resolution irrespective of whether the entity is a party to the particular transaction or not.<sup>4</sup>

4.9 RELATED PARTY TRANSACTIONS NOT APPROVED UNDER THIS POLICY

If the Company becomes aware of a Related Party Transaction that has not been approved under this Policy, the same shall be reported to the Audit Committee for its approval. Such transaction shall not be deemed to be invalid or unenforceable, if the same is approved or ratified as soon as reasonably practicable after the Company becomes aware of such transaction.

While reviewing the aforesaid transaction, the Audit Committee shall consider all the relevant facts and circumstances related to the transaction, and shall evaluate all options available to the Company, including ratification, revision or termination of such transaction, and shall take such course of action as the Audit Committee deems appropriate under the circumstances.

4.10 DISCLOSURE

The Company shall disclose the particulars of contracts or arrangements with related parties along with the justification for entering into such contract or arrangement in the Board's report to the shareholders. The Company shall disclose details of all material transactions with related parties, quarterly, along with the compliance report on corporate governance.

The Company shall disclose this policy on its website and a web link shall be provided in Annual Report.

4.11 POLICY OWNER

This Policy is framed based on the provisions of Companies Act, 2013/ Listing Agreement, rules and regulations made thereunder. In case of any subsequent changes in the provisions of the Act, 2013/ Listing Agreement or any other regulations which makes any of the provisions in the Policy inconsistent with the Act or regulations, the provisions of the Act or regulations would prevail over the Policy and the provisions in the Policy would be modified by the Audit Committee in due course to make it consistent with law.

Any changes or modification on the Policy as recommended by the Committee would be presented for approval of the Board of Directors.

Legal and Secretarial department shall be the owner of this policy and the Management of the organization shall follow the procedure defined in this policy while entering into related party transactions.
